Various sociological classifications of religious movements have been proposed by scholars. In the sociology of religion, the most widely used classification is the church-sect typology. The typology states that churches, ecclesia, denominations and sects form a continuum with decreasing influence on society. Sects are break-away groups from more mainstream religions and tend to be in tension ...

In my book Caesar's Messiah I showed that the Gospels were a Roman mockery of the Jews' messianic typology that had been deliberately linked to Josephus' history. In other words, events in Jesus' ministry were back-written to foreshadow events from Titus Flavius' military campaign that culminated with the destruction of the temple of Jerusalem in 70 CE.
