Welcome to my page of quotations about trees, man's brethren in nature as they are called. I've no idea why "advocates for the preservation of woodlands" (a.k.a. tree huggers) are generally held in negative regard in our society, but I suppose you could consider me one. I've been collecting these quotes since the 1980s, and I sincerely hope that you enjoy them.

To identify spruce trees, first look at the needles. If they're attached individually to branches, have 4 sides, and roll easily between your fingers, it's a spruce. Then, check the cones, which on spruce trees have smooth, thin scales and are easy to bend. You can also look at the shape of the branches, which will be bushy, full, and upturned if it's a spruce.
